Location

Strategically positioned along one of the Fraser Valley's most established transportation routes, the Scott Road Corridor serves as a key commercial and industrial hub connecting North Delta and Surrey. The corridor benefits from excellent regional accessibility, with direct connections to Highway 17, Highway 91, Highway 99, and the Alex Fraser Bridge, providing efficient access to Metro Vancouver, Richmond, Burnaby, and the broader Fraser Valley.

The area is undergoing significant transformation, driven by ongoing investment, population growth, and municipal initiatives aimed at revitalizing Scott Road into a more vibrant mixed-use and employment-focused corridor. With a diverse mix of industrial, retail, service commercial, and residential uses, the area continues to attract businesses seeking convenient access to a growing customer base and a highly connected workforce.

Surrounded by established neighbourhoods, major employment nodes, and extensive transit infrastructure, including the Scott Road SkyTrain Station, the Scott Road Corridor offers a compelling opportunity for investors, owner-users, and developers seeking long-term value in one of Metro Vancouver's most strategically located growth areas.
